Spencer, a young farmer whom she had known as a neighbor for years. They occupied a farm not far from her old home and began life under most promising circumstances. But the hand of Death denied the sweet promise of a happy motherhood which would so well have crowned a beautiful life.

The aged father bowed with grief and the young husband torn with anguish were not alone in their sorrow. So widely known was the deceased that her death was held a personal loss by all have who known and loved her in life and the funeral cortege which followed the remains to their last resting place was the largest ever known in the township. Flowers, and endless array of blossoms, in an abundance that was surprising at that season, covered the bier and the grave. It was one of the most touching demonstrations of loving esteem from the entire community that the REGISTER has ever chronicled.

Remedy this unpleasant evil, by eating nourishing food, and taking a small dose of Herbine after each meal, to digest what you have eaten. 50 cents at C. B. SPENCER & Co.
